

Interviews with
WILLIAM SILEN M.D.

UCSF SURGERY IN THE POSTWAR YEARS:

LEADERSHIP IN GASTROENTEROLOGICAL
RESEARCH AND CLINICAL SURGERY

*Johnson and Johnson Distinguished Professor of Surgery and Faculty Dean for Faculty Development and Diversity
School of Medicine, Harvard University*

THE UCSF ORAL HISTORY PROGRAM
DEPARTMENT OF ANTHROPOLOGY,
HISTORY, AND SOCIAL MEDICINE
UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA, SAN FRANCISCO

INTERVIEWER: NANCY ROCKAFELLAR, Ph. D.

INTERVIEWS WITH WILLIAM SILEN, M.D.

---

OCTOBER 13 &amp; 14, 1998

CONTENTSSurgeon's Foreword by Theodore Schrock, M.D. xvPreface by Philippe Bourgois, Ph.D. xviiAcknowledgments xixHistorian's Introduction Nancy Rockefeller, Ph.D. xxReference Chronology of the History of the UCSF Department of SurgeryEDUCATION AT UC

Preliminary Comments: Background on UC Department of Surgery.....	1
Early Life and Education.....	2
Remembering UC Medical School.....	4
Characterizing UC Surgery in the Postwar Period .....	7
Leadership in the Department of Medicine.....	10
Deciding for Surgery: Influence of Leon Goldman as Surgeon and "Internist" .....	11
Surgical Research in the Halstedian System .....	12

EARLY CAREER

Military Service: Treating War-Wounded at Travis Air Force Base .....	18
Memories of the Laboratory of Experimental Oncology .....	21
Surgery in the Late 1950s: The Broad Domain of General Surgery .....	23
Career Vision: An Internist-Surgeon who Teaches and Creates New Knowledge ...	25
Influence of Harold Harper.....	26
Working at Colorado with Ben Eiseman.....	28
Influence of Robert Glaser.....	30

SERVICE ON THE UC FACULTY

Background Circumstances of the Return to San Francisco, 1960.....	31
Recruitment of J. Englebert Dunphy.....	33
Early UC Research .....	35
Friendship with John Najarian.....	37
Memories of Maurice Galante.....	38

Slow Development of Cardiac Surgery .....	39
Slow Implementation of the Full-Time System in Surgery .....	41

DECIDING FOR HARVARD

Deciding Between Harvard and Salt Lake City .....	43
Professor and Surgeon-in-Chief at Beth Israel .....	44
Clarifying the Teaching Hospital System at Harvard .....	45
Research Work Takes off at Harvard.....	47

PHILOSOPHICAL COMMENTS

The Problem of Stress Ulcers .....	48
Evaluating the Role of Helicobacter pylori .....	50
The Negative Example of Gastric Freezing.....	52
The Uniqueness of Culture in Departments of Surgery .....	54
Collaboration with John Skillman .....	55
Importance of the Chairperson in the Departmental Culture .....	57
Testing vs. Talking.....	58

BUILDING SURGERY AT BETH ISRAEL

Arrival at Beth Israel in 1966.....	59
The Importance of Good Students and Residents.....	60
Developing Cardiac Surgery.....	61
Forming a Progressive Cabinet.....	63
Comparison with UC Anesthesiology.....	64
Need for a Separate Department of Anesthesia at BI .....	65

FURTHER COMMENTS

Anti-Semitism in the Medical World.....	67
Fond Memories of Isidore Edelman.....	67
Memories of Francis Moore.....	68
Thoughts on Teaching.....	69
On Taking Responsibility.....	71
More on Testing vs. Talking .....	72
Polishing Medical-Surgical Judgment: See Patients! .....	74
The Place of Research Training in Surgery .....	75
A Surgeon Does Basic Science.....	77

RESEARCH IN GASTROINTESTINAL PHYSIOLOGY

Frog Gastric Mucosa as a Research Tool.....77
Discovery of Gastric Restitution .....79
Managed Care Invades Massachusetts .....82
Continuing Restitution Research.....83
Comparing BI Surgical Research Nationally.....85
Surgeons as Mouse Doctors.....86

ON MEDICAL EDUCATION

The Academic Medical Center in the Era of Managed Care .....88
Adverse Impacts upon Medical Education.....88
Dean for Faculty Development and Diversity.....90
Women in Surgery .....91
Support for Minority Students.....93
Final Comments.....95
Revising Cope’s Diagnosis of the Acute Abdomen.....96
Atlas of Techniques in Breast Surgery .....98

Index.....99

Appendices

Appendix A: William Silen, M.D.: CV and Bibliography

Appendix B: A Landmark Paper on Gastric Restitution

Appendix C: Presidential Farewell Address: a Surgeon Looks at Training in Gastroenterology